1. Senator Eugenio Reale's position in the Partito Comunista Italiano (PCI) may be compared to that of a Minister for Foreign Trade. It is the task of Reale to survey the commercial relations between Italy and certain satellite countries such as Poland, Hungary and Czechoslovakia and to bring about a close collaboration between the offices of the commercial counsellors of these countries in Italy and the PCI.
2. Reale's functions are closely connected with the indirect financing of the PCI through commercial contacts passed to import-export companies under the control of the PCI.
3. Reale is reportedly the PCI exponent who covertly directs the activity of the "SIMES" Import-Export Company, located at Corso Rinascimento 19, Rome.
